

Write a haiku poem

Haiku is a form of Japanese poetry with the following features:	Haiku examples:
 □ 3 short lines □ No rhymes □ 1st line: 5 syllables □ 2nd line: 7 syllables □ 3rd line: 5 syllables □ Often about nature and seasons 	Rain falls on my skin Shivering, I run indoors Warm, I peek outside. Evaporation Heated water floats up high To make clouds and rain Find a comfortable place outside or near a window to write 2 - 3 water or nature themed haiku poems. Use the checklist above to make sure you have followed the haiku rules.

Finished? Publish your favourite poem. Use a computer or your best hand writing and include an illustration. Share your water haiku with us: communications@coliban.com.au

